An opportunity will be given the public to take all the pictures they wish, so bring along your cameras.

OBITUARY

JOHN MACLEAN

The death occurred at his home near Craigmyle, of John MacLean, aged 64, after a long illness.

John MacLean was born in the Falkland Islands, South America, on New Year's Day, 1888. He came to Canada with his parents in 1896, living at Hanamka for ten years, when he moved to Bassano. In 1912 he married Miss Dora Beck and they made their home near Craigmyle where they lived until his death. He is survived by his wife, two sons and seven daughters. One sister, Mrs. Frank Newman, Oakland, California, three brothers, Archie, Cochrane, Alberta, and Magnus A. and William of Bassano. He is the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacLean "Sheep Ranch", Bassano.

Interment was in Craigmyle Cemetery, May 24th, 1942.

R.C.A.F. Needs Women Recruits

The ever growing part to be played by women in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan was further emphasized by the latest announcement from RCAF Headquarters, which lists 27 separate air force duties and trades now open to personnel of the Royal Canadian Air Force (Women's Division).

In addition to the original line of Clerk Accountants, Stenographer and General, have been added three more divisions: Clerk Operations Rooms, Clerks Operations Rooms, and Clerks Stenographer (Medical). The trade, Clerk Operations Room, calls for service of a highly secret nature, demanding the kind of type of applicant. Standards set for this trade require education equivalent to Senior Matriculation and those chosen must be physically able and have the temperament to work accurately and quickly under extremely strenuous circumstances. This is no job for the highly strung "nervous type".

Special references from local authorities or clergymen are required. The new trades for the medical divisions call for the same qualifications as for established clerical and stenographic duties, with an added interest in, or experience in, Doctor's offices or Hospitals.

Special dietary departments for Air Force Hospitals are to be established and the trade of Hospital Cook has been added. Those with institutional or restaurant cooking experience are being sought. Those chosen must have superior knowledge and able to compile a weekly diet sheet, be able to supervise, organize and maintain a complete hospital kitchen.

MAKEPEACE

(By Our Correspondent)

The dance at the Makepeace School last Thursday night, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Macbeth, was indeed a successful one. All the old friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Macbeth were there to show their appreciation for what they had done and been to the neighborhood in many ways. Mr. Macbeth was the Pool Elevator agent and was well liked and respected and all will regret his removal. Mrs. Macbeth was an interested worker for the Red Cross as Secretary and in many other ways. She was one of the first to assist in organizing the Red Cross and her advice in knitting was constantly invited and cheerfully given, and particularly was she of service to the school children, a great many of whom she taught to knit.

A purse of money was collected and presented to them. Mr. and Macbeth left Saturday morning for Tudor and we wish them all good wishes in their new home.

A lunch was served at an early hour and all reported a splendid evening but Fred Bulger, as he had no recollection of being there, even on to the next day.

Mr. Edgar Mullen is home on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Mullen and family, together with Mr. and Mrs. Seely's parents from Duck Lake were dinner guests at the Seely home in Makepeace.

We extend congratulations to Mr. Charles Rodbourne of Crowfoot who celebrated his 81st birthday on May 26th.

Mr. Anderson who is employed at the Ogden shops in Calgary was a visitor in the neighborhood this week.

Miss Betty Macbeth was a caller in the neighborhood.

Mr. Tom Rodbourne returned to Calgary after being down for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Ed Shaffer's on Sunday.

In the removal of Mr. Macbeth, Mrs. J. Clark was appointed Secretary and Mrs. L. Conley was placed in charge of wool and materials of the Red Cross.

The Red Cross Committee report $112.68 collections and a horse donated by Hank Wagner to be raffled or auctioned off for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Mrs. J. Clark had as dinner and supper guests on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rodbourne, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts, Mr. Chas. Rodbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. K. Down.

The Red Cross regular meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kuckle on Monday. Mrs. Maurer, Mrs. J. Johnston, Mrs. Murdoch, Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. Gordon Walker and Miss Mary Murdoch of Bassano and Mrs. Roy of Hauser were visitors. $2.50 tea money was raised. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Tom Larson in two weeks.

The following articles were turned in at Red Cross in response to roll call.

Eleven pairs child's pyjamas, 14 pairs men's pyjamas, 1 quilt top, 1 skull cap, 1 seaman's sweater, 2 child's sweaters, 3 pairs socks, 1 pr. rompers, 2 cushion tops.

Mrs. Ed Shaffer is home sick with the flu.

OTTAWA LETTER

The fact is being recognized that the front line of battle does not run through the factories. The fighting forces are making a sacrifice that is far beyond the sacrifice the factory workers are making. The word SACRIFICE is too sacred to be used except for those in the field of death and destruction. The hope is spreading that those who are fighting in the Air, on land and on the Seas, should have a very special provision made for themselves and, or their dependents, when the War is over. At least three committees in Canada are working on this problem and re-establishment, rehabilitation, Land Settlement, Annuity, Pension, Insurance, security and other schemes are being carefully discussed and planned to compensate these brave men, as far as material rewards can, for their contribution.

At present the indications are that about fifty of the Quebec members will form a separate political party and hope to hold the balance of the power in the House. There is no sign of the views being modified on either side although all are hoping that the War effort will not suffer.

In British rationing means distributing food on a nutritional basis. The people are pleased with it because they remember the drugery and inequality of the long queues of the last war where the rich and the strong got food and the poor and the patient were told "no more today." Modern Nutrition Science has made British a healthier nation although the Salomina menace reaches 1000 miles farther out on the sea lanes now.

MORE WOOL NEEDED IN CANADA

Canada needs to produce more wool. With war development now threatening the supplies from abroad, Canada faces a serious situation. Compulsory reduction in the amount of wool for civilian purposes is necessary. In addition, many more sheep are needed on Canadian farms and ranges in order to augment the wool supply.

Over a million more sheep are required by 1943. Sheep and lambs on farms in June, 1941, numbered slightly over 3½ million head, rather evenly divided between Eastern and Western Canada. The minimum number of sheep and lambs aimed at for all Canada in 1943 is 4½ million—an overall increase of roughly 30 per cent.

Good ewes and ewe lambs should be kept for breeding purposes. If Canada is to have one million more sheep by 1943, every useful ewe and every good ewe lamb, particularly the early ones, should be saved for the owner's flock or sold to someone who wishes to increase his holding or to start a new flock, says the Board.

Before the time comes for marketing lambs and surplus aged stock, farmers should pick out the ewe lambs needed to increase their flocks. If there are still good ewe lambs or useful aged ewes that someone might want for foundation stock, get in touch with the nearest district representative of the Dominion Department of Agriculture or the live stock representative of the Dominion Department of Agriculture before deciding to send potential breeding stock to market.

Your

GARDEN

(By Gordon Lindsay Smith)

LATE PLANTINGS

In most of Canada, the average garden will now be planted with the earlier types of vegetables and flowers. This does not mean that it is too late to make a start. As a matter of fact, most authorities state the average beginner makes a mistake in ceasing planting too soon. If one desires continuous blooms throughout the season or a continuing supply of really fresh vegetables, planting should be continued right up to the 1st of July.

This is especially true of vegetables, particularly the semi-tender things like beans, carrots, beets, corn, cabbage, etc. Most vegetables are best when they just reach first maturity, and if one wants to continue eating the finest carrots, corn, beans, peas, etc. all through the season, then planting should be continued at intervals of from two to three weeks right from the time the soil is first ready up to about the first week of July.

With flowers, it is still not too late in most parts of Canada, and only early enough in the colder section, to plant nasturtiums, gladioli, dahlias, and to plant well started plants of cosmos, sinningia, alyssum, etc. obtainable from the nearest seedhouse nurseryman or greenhouse. These started plants in both vegetables and flowers will allow one to have blooming flowers or a maturing vegetable garden in a few weeks.

VICTORY GARDENS

There has been a great deal of publicity in the newspapers and over the radio this year about Victory gardens. Many Canadians are planting vegetables for the first time. Quite a lot of this publicity originates in the United States, and while the information is highly suitable for the States it may not be adapted for more rigorous Canadian conditions. One should be very careful in using varieties mentioned. Many of these are not obtainable in Canadian seed stores for the simple reason that these varieties have not been tested and approved by Canadian government authorities.

GARDEN ENEMIES

Weeds, insects and diseases are the natural enemies of the garden. If countered quickly by continuous cultivation, some quick acting commercial fertilizer and various sprays and dusts, there will be little trouble. The main thing is to start the counter attack before the enemies get their offensive underway. It is a simple matter for instance to dust potatoes, and if done just as soon as the second set of leaves develop, and followed again at intervals of two weeks during the early period of growth there will be no trouble. The same is true with snail and slug and other plants, with attacks of aphids, wilt and various insects that prey on so many of our cultivated plants.

Thorough and early cultivation will soon check weeds and encourage growth of the things we are trying to grow. If at the time of these first cultivations a little fertilizer is added, close to, but not touching the plants favorable growth will be further encouraged.

GENERAL CARE

Once the garden, both vegetable and flower is fully planted late care will be principally cultivation and dusting or spraying as previously mentioned and thinning and staking. One can hardly over-emphasize the importance of thinning. These small seeded vegetables like lettuce, carrots and beets for instance, should never be allowed to grow as they usually germinate. The same is true of flowers whose seeds are so fine that it is impossible to prevent their being planted to close. Carrots, beets and lettuce should have two to three inches apart in the row and the first harvest should take out every other plant to give the survivors room. With flowers, give at least half as much room between the plants as they will finally grow.

SUGAR RATION Now 1/2 LB.

Since sugar rationing was first introduced, the shipping situation has become more serious. The danger to ships and lives has increased. Consequently it has now become necessary to reduce the sugar ration from ¾ lb. to ½ lb. per week per person. Only persons in areas remote from source of supply are permitted to have more than two weeks' supply on hand at any time.

SUGAR FOR PRESERVING

Special provision is made for additional quantities of sugar for home preserving and canning.

In addition to your ration, you may purchase ½ lb. of sugar for every pound of fruit that you preserve or can, and ¼ lb. of sugar for every pound of fruit made into jam or jelly.

Every person who buys sugar for canning or preserving is required to keep an accurate record of the sugar purchased for this purpose. If any sugar remains after canning and preserving, it shall form part of the regular ration of ½ lb. per person per week.

Loyal Canadians will be glad of this new opportunity to do their part to ensure Victory.

TEA AND COFFEE ARE RATIONED

Ships and lives must be conserved

To bring tea from Ceylon and India, to bring coffee from South America, ships must cross oceans loaded with submarines. Today those ships and their naval escorts are required for more essential service. Every ship, every foot of cargo space, is needed to carry war material, and to bring essential goods to Canada.

So Canadians must now reduce their consumption of tea and coffee. You must reduce your normal consumption of tea by at least a half. You must reduce your normal consumption of coffee by at least one fourth. These reductions are absolutely necessary.

TEA CONSUMPTION MUST BE CUT AT LEAST IN HALF

COFFEE CONSUMPTION MUST BE CUT AT LEAST ONE FOURTH

THIS IS THE LAW

You must not buy more than 2 weeks' supply of tea or coffee for yourself and household in any one week.

You must not make further purchases of tea or coffee at any time when you have two weeks' supply on hand at the reduced rate. (Exception: those in areas remote from supply).

Retailers have the right to limit or refuse customers' orders if they suspect the law is not being kept. Retailers must not have on hand more than one month's supply of tea and coffee, whether packaged or bulk.

FROM THE
Warfare Prices and Trade Board

NO RIDES ON TRUCKS

Attention to all truck drivers and drivers is called by Mr. Walter S. Campbell Regional Representative of the Warfare Prices and Trade Board to the new regulation, forbidding truck drivers to carry passengers, unless in possession of a permit to do so. This applies even to employees of the truck owner, members of his family or persons carried free.

Exception only is made when livestock is being carried, when owners of livestock may be carried in the cab.

Persons requiring permits must apply to the Regional Director of Transport, Williamson Building, Edmonton, giving name of the owner, make, model, type, serial number and license number of the truck and full particulars of what the permit is required to cover.

The permit system is part of the plan to conserve gasoline and rubber for military needs by limiting non-essential motor travel.

MUST REPORT EXCESS TIRES

Automobile and truck owners have only until the end of May to report in writing to the nearest tire rationing Representative of the Warfare Prices and Trade Board any excess tires and tubes in their possession, whether new or used, over what is necessary to equip the running wheels and one spare rim of each vehicle in their ownership or control. It is not necessary to give the identification number of the tires.

There is no present intention of calling in excess tires, states the Controller of Supplies. The census of tires is part of the compilation of the rubber resources of Canada.

Tire rationing representatives in Alberta are stationed at Red Deer, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Grande Prairie, Calgary and Edmonton in the Regional and sub-regional offices of the Warfare Prices and Trade Board.

FOR HOLIDAY MAKERS

With the summer holiday season upon us, and travel by automobile limited, Mr. Walter S. Campbell, Regional Representative of the Warfare Prices and Trade Board, points out that rentals of summer cottages must not be greater than those charged during similar months of last season. Renters who would offer to pay more are liable for a breach of the Rental regulations as landlords who would charge more. Cost of meals, hotel accommodation etc., must not exceed last summer's prices.

Operators of summer hotels and boarding houses are under the same obligation as city operators—to post in each room a printed statement showing the maximum rental for the room, for one or more persons, with or without board.

NEW ANIMAL STORY

An apparently innocent animal story, "Snore the Seal, a Fable for Children and Adults," was a best seller in Norway, until the Germans detected the allegory. The book told of a small seal (Norwegian) which was made prisoner by the killer whale (Germany). The seal had an uncle Walrus (England), who came to the aid of the seal and together they fooled the killer whale, which eventually was caught in a rock fissure. Included in the story were two seagulls (Chivalry), with red marks above one eye (the brand of Cain), who betrayed their former friend of the sea.

I told him that the average woman's clothing weighs only eight ounces.
And what did he say?
He thought it was a shame they had to wear such heavy shoes!

A five pound flatiron contains enough iron to make four hand-grenades. Incidentally the flatiron itself is frequently used as a hand-grenade, and can be quite destructive in case of a direct hit.

"Hitler's not going to teach my children!"

"I've read how Hitler starts training his killers when they're toddlers. So I reckon it's up to me and every other Canadian mother to train our children to realize that they've got to pay for their freedom!"

"That's why I see it that all my children buy War Savings Stamps every week. I tell them what freedom means—that the grown-ups are fighting for—that it's for them! So they've got to give up something too—and the money—$5.00 back for every $4.00 saved now—will come in mighty handy when they start out on their own!"

Buy War Savings Stamps from banks, post offices, drugstores, grocers and other retail stores.

SAW! READ! HEARD!

During French lesson a certain teacher was heard to say, "Although I have never been fishing, I am very interested in it." It is the fishing or the fisherman that she is interested in? She may not fish, but she sure can shoot! We hear that she sharpened her sights and got rid of all competition. Is that so?

Automobile drivers please note. Constable Allen is back in town—'Nuff said!

Spring is in the air. "Einstein" has left his mathematics and is now chasing one of the girls down on Railway Avenue. Wonder what his method is? We venture a guess that he thinks the straight "line" is still the shortest distance between two points.

Give some chorus girls an inch and they've got a costume.

You have all heard of the Nutty Nitters Club. Well we thought that it was a female organization but apparently it isn't. Nib Edwards was demonstrating in the pool room the art of knitting a sweater. Now we know where Nib has been spending his time. Would someone please inform us whether or not Thelma has taken up knitting?

Customer (hastily): "You ought to be in the war instead of in this grocery business!"
Proprietor: "What makes you say that?"

Customer: "No enemy could stand up to the way you charge."

See Gordon Smith if you want to apply for membership in the Antelope Club. Gordon can give you full particulars on entrance examinations.

"Be careful of a live-wire when you're in the bath tub!" Oh, I am—I always lock the door!

The Beauty Parlor may get competition. The girls at the Dan, having been pestering the "girl with the soft lips" so much for inside stuff that she says she is going into the business.

A girl usually closes her eyes when her sweetheart kisses her. After a few years of marriage she usually opens her eyes and raises her eyebrows—Ex.

The old gag being revised! Husband (answering the phone): "I don't know, call the weather bureau." He hung up. "Who was that," asked his wife. "Some sailor I guess he asked if the coast was clear."

"Hank" Morrell apparently does not suffer from hay fever, for on a Saturday afternoon he can be seen happily tripping over the meadows. Could it be that in the presence of a certain lady he does not feel the effects of hay fever?

A cigar can cause a lot of trouble. If you don't believe us ask Jack. He had a cigar given to him the other day and started to smoke it but... We called the doctor, the undertaker, and the veterinarian to try and revive him but in due time he came too and later recovered completely. The box is now a confirmed cigarette smoker.

Have you any dirt?

ALASKAN PLANE LANDS AT AIRPORT

Last Saturday afternoon excitement ran high. A plane had landed at the local airport. People streamed out to see what had happened. Here is a play by play description.

A tri-motored Stinson plane bearing the insignia, "Ray Peterson Flying Service", Anchorage, Alaska was on its way to the states with five passengers aboard. The plane itself was going in for a repair job. The pilot had lost his bearings and his maps showed no further east than Glenheim, he noticed the field here and landed to find out where he was. He was given a map and directions and then took off toward Lethbridge.

Happily thrilled, the populace returned to the hum-drum activities of every day life.

A scientist has just stated that if the earth were flattened out, the sea would be two miles deep all over the world. Reading this, the editor of the Oklahoma paper reprinted it with this addition: "If my man is caught flattening the earth can't swim."
